ISTANBUL

- Spice Bazaar - This market is a great place to find spices, herbs, and other Turkish delicacies. Exploring the Spice Bazaar, also known as the Egyptian Bazaar or Misir Çarşısı in Turkish, is a delightful sensory experience in Istanbul.
- Beyoglu - Located on the European side of Istanbul, Beyoglu is known for its vibrant atmosphere and bustling streets. Istiklal Avenue, the main thoroughfare, is lined with shops, restaurants, cafes, and historical buildings. This neighborhood is also home to the famous Galata Tower and the trendy area of Karakoy.
- Karakoy - Located on the European side, Karakoy is a trendy neighborhood that has undergone significant transformation in recent years. It features a mix of historic buildings, hip cafes, art galleries, and design shops. Karakoy is also known for its vibrant street art scene.
- Bosphorus - The Bosphorus Strait is a narrow waterway that separates the European and Asian sides of Istanbul, connects the Black Sea to the Sea of Marmara and offers breathtaking views of Istanbul's iconic landmarks, such as the Hagia Sophia, Blue Mosque, and the Bosphorus Bridge.

BURSA

- Koza Han - The Koza Han holds great historical significance as it dates back to the 15th century. It was originally built during the Ottoman Empire and served as a trading center and accommodation for merchants and their caravans. Today, the Koza Han continues to be a hub for silk-related activities. It houses numerous shops and stalls selling a variety of silk products, including fabrics, scarves, clothing, and accessories. Visitors have the opportunity to explore the vibrant silk market, browse the exquisite silk items, and even purchase souvenirs to take back home.

CANAKKALE

- Aynali Bazaar - the symbol of Çanakkale, with more than 130 years of history. One of the most touristic spots in Çanakkale and is frequently visited by visitors to the city where you can find interesting souvenirs of the city.
- Dardanelles - also known as the Strait of Gallipoli and in Classical Antiquity as the Hellespont, is a narrow, natural strait and internationally significant waterway in northwestern Turkey that forms part of the continental boundary between Asia and Europe and separates Asian Turkey from European Turkey.
